Greenbelters To Tour Space Flight Center

by Dorothy Sucher

Ladies, wear flats. When? Next Sunday afternoon, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. when the Goddard Space Flight Center will be holding Open House for citizens of Greenbelt. Goddard, located on Glenn Dale Road about two miles beyond the Washington-Baltimore Parkway, is a huge, sprawling, fascinating place employing thousands of people, where a multitude of functions vital to the nation's space program are performed.

The Open House, a family affair with many interesting features for the children, is planned as a walking tour. "The basic concept is a sort of continuous smorgasbord," said Charles Boyle, Public Affairs Officer at Goddard. Included among the special features available in six different buildings of the space center are displays, lectures, and continuous movies. The cafeteria will be open from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Cars will pass through the entrance gate from Glenn Dale Road, where guards will direct them to nearby parking lots. Vehicle and passenger traffic will be kept separate, in the interests of safety. Parents are asked to keep children from straying, and signs will be posted on the telephone poles giving directions to the various exhibits.

When families enter a building where one of the 15-minute lectures is in progress, they will be able to inspect the special exhibits in the lobbies while waiting for the lecture room doors to reopen. Most of the lecturers will be teachers from the local high schools, who were hired by Goddard to serve as guides to the space center. On occasion, they also deliver talks to local groups.

Buildings 7 and 10 promise to be exceptionally interesting. Here are housed the chambers in which conditions that will be encountered by the satellites in flight are artificially duplicated, for the purpose of pre-testing new equipment. Visitors will stroll along a large balcony, looking down as a lecturer with a microphone on the floor below explains the purposes and functions of machines that are really out of this world. By the way, for the information of the baby-carriage set, this balcony tour is the only part of the trip that involves a flight of stairs.

Children will not go home empty-handed. On leaving the space center, they will be given "some unique handouts, loot that is guaranteed to fascinate." The precise nature of the loot, however, has been classified top secret.

In case of rain, making it impractical to walk from building to building, the Open House will be canceled. Notice of cancellation will be broadcast over several local radio and television stations.

FLASH!

A luncheon for first families of Greenbelt will be held at the American Legion on Saturday, October 20. Details will be announced in next week's issue of the News Review.

U. S. SENATE APPROVES LUTHERAN PURCHASE

Rep. Richard E. Lankford (D., Md.) has reported that the Senate has passed a bill which would permit Greenbelt's Holy Cross Lutheran Church to purchase a Federal tract of land on which it plans to construct a new church and related facilities. The Maryland Democrat said that the action cleared the measure, which he introduced, for the President's signature.

City Notes

Work is progressing at the Bresler developments on Lakeside Drive extended. Footings are being poured for the first 21 houses, and foundation walls are rising.

The main right-of-way at the proposed Boxwood Village subdivision has been cleared of trees, and will be leveled in the near future.

The contractor will continue for some time to burn trees and branches which have been cleared away. Roof trusses are being raised on several of the apartment buildings at the Spring Lake development. Also being installed are curbs and gutters for roadways in the project.

Mrs. Marilyn Spitz has been appointed City Clerk on a temporary basis, as her family may be moving from the area before long. Mrs. Spitz has been serving unofficially as City Clerk since the retirement of Mrs. Winfield McCamy.

A familiar face will be missing from Greenbelt's recreation program this fall. Mrs. Evelyn Boggs, a long-time resident of Greenbelt who has taught arts and crafts here for several years, has accepted a post with the Prince Georges County Recreation Department to give a similar course elsewhere in the county.

On October 1, several large concrete sidewalk sections in the Center were reset. City manager Charles McDonald reports that the roots of the London plane trees which shade the sidewalk had raised some of the slabs as much as three inches, causing a potential hazard to pedestrians. He noted that this phenomenon is particularly common after a prolonged drought, when the roots seem to exert an unusual upward pressure.

Greenbelt in the News

The Sunday Star Magazine section will feature a story on Greenbelt — "Greenbelt Looks Back On 25 Years" — this Sunday, October 14. The article will be dotted with many familiar names and scenes.

Concert Stage Added To Ritchie Coliseum

Ritchie Coliseum, a University of Maryland athletic field house built in 1931, is being refurbished and equipped with a concert stage and shell. The 2600-seat building, to be completed about October 15, will be used for symphony concerts, musical productions, and large faculty assemblies, in addition to serving as an athletic facility for physical education classes and intramural sports.

A joint project of the university's student government association, department of physical plant, and department of speech and dramatic art, the $50,000 renovation project is being directed by George Weber, the university's physical plant director. A powder blue shell, designed by Charles J. Schmitt, technical director of Maryland's University Theatre, is being fashioned from plastic. Plans also call for the installation of a complete sound and amplification system stage lighting facilities.

Events already scheduled for Ritchie Coliseum by the student government cultural committee for the coming school year include: Modern Jazz Quartet on Oct. 20; National Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Howard Mitchell on Nov. 8, Dec. 6, Jan. 17, Feb. 28, and April 4; Ferranti and Teischer on Nov. 27; Don Cossack Dancers on March 21; and Mariam Makeba Concert on April 19. The University Theatre will produce Lerner and Loewe's "Paint Your Wagon" on November 1, 2, and 3.

Ambulance a Trophy Winner

The Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad proudly announces that its Cadillac ambulance, equipment #359, has earned many trophies for Greenbelt lately. Trophies for first place were won at parades in Kensington at the Montgomery County Convention, at Laurel for the P.G. County Convention, at Upper Marlboro at the P. G. County Fair, at the Bradbury Heights Boys Club parade, at Gwynn Oaks Park for the State Fire Chiefs' Outing, and at Riva. A second place trophy was won at Clinton and a special judges award was won at Brandywine.

This year's Fire Prevention float was presented in seven parades this year and came home with five trophies. First place awards were won at Laurel, Bladensburg, and Greenbelt and second place awards were won at Bradbury Heights and Gwynn Oaks.

St. Hugh's To Hear Speaker

Dr. Robert J. Gibbs, Vice-President of the Archdiocesan Union of Holy Name Societies, will address St. Hugh's Holy Name Society at the groups regular monthly meeting of October 14. Dr. Gibbs, a physical chemist with the Agriculture Department, will be the first of a series of speakers who will cover various aspects of the Lay Apostolate. He will discuss "The Lay Apostolate in the Holy Name Society." All members are urged to receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass and to attend the meeting afterwards in the Social Room.

Governor Plans Two Visits to City

Junior Highlights

by Earl Zubkoff

Tension is mounting at Greenbelt Junior High School as the students prepare for their coming political rally.

Scheduled for October 29, the rally is patternd after a similar event which took place at the Junior High during the last presidential election. At that time much radio and newspaper coverage was given the event, partly due to the list of attending speakers. That list included such men as Representative Richard M. Lankford and his opponent, Carlisle Lancaster, as well as representatives of both candidates for President. This year everyone hopes to make the rally even better and more successful than its predecessor. On hand to speak will be Governor J. Millard Tawes, Republican candidate for governor Frank Small, and numerous other candidates seeking office in the coming November election.

The rally is being sponsored by classes 9D and 9C under the direction of Mr. Whittaker, ninth grade civics and English teacher, assisted by Barbara Bowman, a ninth grade student. Its main purpose is to instill in the student an appreciation and understanding of the voting processes in a democratic society.

Troop 746 Campers

Troop 746 has now completed its fourth year of camping at Magnolia, West Virginia. The seventeen boys who attended this rough camp enjoyed themselves very much, even though they carried their own water, cooked their own meals and did other chores.

The Junior Assistant Scoutmasters were Bob Miller, Mack Kirkley, and Jack Webb. Adult leaders were Richard Stover, Harold King and Al Cousin.

Many thanks to the parents of scouts who drove to and from Camp Dogwood, which is a three and one-half hour drive.

Troop 746 is now preparing for the District Camporee, October 19, 20 and 21.

Democratic Party Notes

A coffee will be held for Governor J. Millard Tawes and his running mates on October 19 at 10:30 a.m. at the Greenbelt Youth Center. On the evening of the same day, Governor Tawes and his party will attend a Democratic Rally at the Greenbelt Armory.

Firemen Honor Greenbelters

Several Greenbelt members were honored at the recently held Prince Georges County Firemen's Association Convention at Laurel. Young Thomas Klem, 4-D Hillside, was officially awarded a four year scholarship to the Maryland University College of Engineering. He will be taking a Fire Protection Course. The Greenbelt Fire Department has agreed to purchase all books needed by Klem for his studies during the four years.

Greenbelt Auxiliary President Cleo Dutton was elected County Auxiliary Historian and Vice President Patricia Jones was made County Canteen Chairman.

A number of members from various companies throughout the county were cited for their work in Fire Prevention and presented with special awards. Among those receiving these citations was Mrs. Rita Fisher of Greenbelt who was credited with inciting interest in Fire Prevention floats in the county.

Tawes to Attend Greenbelt Dance

Governor J. Millard Tawes has accepted an invitation to attend Greenbelt's Anniversary Dance on October 27, according to an announcement by Phyllis Douglas. Together with Bud Dean and Frank Perrazoli, Mrs. Douglas co-chairs the sub-committee which has made all the arrangements for the Anniversary Dance.

The Governor's letter is reprinted below:

Dear Mrs. Douglas:

I wish to acknowledge and thank you for the formal invitation extended to Mrs. Tawes and me to attend a dance which the Silver Anniversary Committee is holding on Saturday, October 27, 1962 at 9:00 p.m., at the Greenbelt Armory.

I have a prior dinner engagement at the University of Maryland dining hall at 7:00 p.m. that same evening. However, if it is agreeable with you I should like to stop by later in the evening if at all possible.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

J. Millard Tawes

Governor

The advance sale of tickets for the dance has been an overwhelming success, but there are still a few tickets left. Any organization which wants to distribute tickets to its members should contact Mrs. Douglas as soon as possible. The committee also expressed a need for some outside ivy. Anyone who is willing to donate a few cuttings should call Mrs. George Neumann, GR 4-6630.

Businessmen Re-organize, To Promote City Programs

The Greenbelt Businessmen's Association held a re-organizational meeting in the office of Edgar L. Smith, Attorney, on Thursday, October 4, and elected its officers for the year. They are: President Edgar L. Smith; Vice-President, Charles Walton, Greenbelt Theater; Secretary, Rita Fisher, Greenbelt News Review; Treasurer, Leo Gerton, High's. Henry Davis, Kay-Dee Furniture, was appointed chairman of the sign committee and Harvey Geller, Twin Pines, Chairman of the By-laws committee. The Association consists of business men in the Center and those with office space or shops in Greenbelt.

Plans were set in motion for a survey to be made as to a location for a sign on or near one of the entrances to the city. The committee will select a few choice sites and then endeavor to obtain permission to erect the signs.

The organization is trying to arrange a meeting between the owner of the property at the Center, Cohen & Cohen, and the Association.

Tentative plans include advertising in papers outside of Greenbelt in order to inform the surrounding communities that certain facilities are available through the businesses in Greenbelt. The Association will be advertising its businesses in the Special Anniversary edition of the Greenbelt News Review and in the opening announcement of the re-built Co-op store.

Association president Smith stated: "The reason for this organization to exist is that we wish to foster a closer relationship between businessman and consumer through community programs. We hope to increase the business potential in the city of Greenbelt."

The next meeting of the Greenbelt Businessmen's Association will be held on Thursday, October 18, at 8:30 p.m. in Smith's office.

Beltway Construction Bids

The State of Maryland has asked for construction bids on a portion of the Capital Beltway from Rhode Island Avenue to the Baltimore Washington Parkway. The strip includes 2.7 miles of mainline roadway and 3.4 miles of interchange ramps. Bids for this project will be opened in the Baltimore offices of the State Roads Commission on October 23.

Roads To Somewhere?

Passing along Crescent Road near the Greenbelt Lake last week, we were surprised to note a bulldozer at work cutting a swath through the woods for roadways. This is the site of the proposed Boxwood Village, but we were under the impression that the final plans for this subdivision had not yet been approved by the city council or by the Park and Planning Commission.

We were later informed by Charles Bresler, developer of the project, that he was anxious to get started on the work before the frost set in. While we can sympathize with his motives, we feel his action is jeopardizing to some degree the good relations he has built up with the community.

It is probable that the subdivision and street outline will receive final approval as proposed. Still, it would be unfortunate if Bresler's fait accompli were to make it difficult for the council to consider improvements in the site plan. Bresler is gambling that the present plan will be approved. We hope he is right — for the community's benefit as well as for his own.

Overwhelmed

To The Editor

The Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad finds an ordinary "Thank You" entirely flat and inadequate as an acknowledgment of the wonderful cooperation among the citizens, merchants, and civic associations in assisting us in our recent promotion of the Mills Brothers' Circus.

Your sort of kindness and generosity overwhelmed us, and "Thanks" seems very feeble. Now, thanks to you, we are closer to our goal of a new ambulance to replace our old Pontiac.

Old Clothing Is Wanted

To the Editor:

The following is part of a letter sent to me from a lady in Alabama who makes her living by picking peas.

"honey some of these people can't read or write or I'd have them to write and thank you. I'll thank you in behalf of them. They are truly grateful. We do not have a Salvation Army in our county and welfare doesn't have clothes for those on their aid. I realize there is need all over. I thought perhaps in a thickly populated community some people clean out and throw away things that these people would be proud to wear on Sundays. I hope you don't think we are begging. I believe God will help provide. Please pray for us with us. Thank you again honey from the bottom of our hearts. Thank you is a small word isn't it, but I hope it means much. God bless you real good. Love always, Violet"

If you are able to help, would you please drop off any old clothing, broken toys that can be fixed, or Sunday School teaching materials to 39L Ridge Rd. I will pack and mail them to Mrs. H. W. Cameron, Route 3, Hayden, Ala. Pickups can be arranged, if you will call 474-4101.

Thank you.

Mrs. Paul E. Lovell

Parents at High Point

Dr. Peter Heinze, president of the High Point Parent Teachers Association, announced that the next PTA meeting on Tuesday evening, October 16, would be a back-to-school night for parents and guests. Following a brief business meeting in the school cafeteria at 7:30, parents will visit classrooms according to their boy or girl's schedule.

Fire Prevention Program

TO THE EDITOR:

I should like to thank the citizens of Greenbelt who took the time last Saturday evening to attend the Fire Prevention Program at the Fire House, which was arranged by the Auxiliary. October 7-13 is officially Fire Prevention week, but Greenbelt Auxiliary plans to carry on programs throughout the year.

The role of Ladies Auxiliaries in this field began about three years ago at the State Convention of the Maryland State Firemen's Association. The assistance that could be given to the Firemen was to work out an effective Fire Prevention Program. Many times they simply cannot take the time from their first duty, that of answering calls, maintaining the equipment and the Fire House, and carrying on the business of the department, etc., to enter and participate actively in this other very important phase of the Company. The result was that the 188 Auxiliaries of the State Association, of which there are 34 in Prince Georges County, began to plan programs on each level—state, county, and local.

Greenbelt Auxiliary has participated in all three levels and are proud of this record. Every time the public is reached with a message concerning Fire Prevention and Safety in the Home, there are more VOLUNTEERS spreading the word. I urge you to watch our local paper for announcements in the months to come of where our programs will be presented. Any club or civic group has only to call the fire house, and arrangements will be made for your group to have a program presented at their convenience. I hope we will hear from YOU soon. REMEMBER if we STOP FIRES we SAVE LIVES.

Sincerely yours,

Cleo Dutton, President of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Greenbelt Vol. Fire Department and Rescue Squad

PTA Says Sidewalk Needed

The North End PTA unanimously voted to request City Council to take action on constructing a sidewalk on Research Road between Ridge and Hillside. A survey made last spring by Mr. Joseph O'Loughlin, sixth grade teacher, revealed that 1 out of 3 children walk to and from the school via Research Road. The road is especially hazardous since it is widely traversed by personnel from the Beltsville Agricultural Center.

Where Are The Fish?

TO THE EDITOR:

What about the Lake?

This year's fishing at the Greenbelt Lake has been the worst in its history. It has been fished regularly and steadily by good fishermen, but - no fish.

I have received many inquiries regarding this fact and will try and give my views. I have fished the lake for many, many years and believe I have the answer. Only time will tell how correct I am.

Here is an example of the questions asked me:

Pop, where are all the fish? Have you caught them?

Answer: No.

What are the plans for the future of our beautiful lake?

Answer: I do not know except that they plan to drain the lake in November.

What is wrong?

My answer: There is no doubt as to the bass fishing. They are not biting; if there is anything left to bite. In 1960 I caught 121 bass in September. This year, and fishing every day, I have not had a strike in September. So far in October, using every kind of plug and live bait, it has been the same.

What is wrong?

I have come to two conclusions. The latter one I believe is the answer. No. 1: There are so many blue gills in the lake (natural food) that the bass refuse to take anything else. No. 2: The lake is so full of weeds, vegetation, beer bottles, cans, and other debris, that the fish have died from the lack of oxygen.

I have found many dead fish in the lake throughout the summer. Inasmuch as we have no current, they simply sink to the bottom in the weeds and there they lie until the many turtles get them and clean them up.

What should be done?

The lake should be drained entirely, cleaned, dredged, and cleaned out of bottles cans and other debris before refilling. It will be a waste of good water (oil included) if this is not done. I am sure the council will see that this is properly done before refilling. Any fish found in the lake should be saved and put in some other lake.

As to the source of the oil, I do not know. But I do know that on many occasions I have found oil very thick on top of the water.

Forum on Civil Liberties

The National Capital Area Civil Liberties Union announces a series of five lectures on the legal foundations of civil liberties, to be given on alternate Monday evenings starting October 15. On that date Joseph L. Rauh, Jr. will speak on "Free Speech and Assembly". He will discuss sit-ins, freedom of the sidewalks, unpopular causes (American Nazi Party), and similar topics. Rauh, a prominent Washington attorney, has been a participant in many landmark civil liberties cases of this decade. Recently he defended the Arlington theater pickets.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will be held at Georgetown University Law School, 506 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. at 8:15 p.m. Admission is free.

Interim Report on Police Chief Post

On June 15, 1962, James Williams resigned his $6,000-a-year post as chief of the Greenbelt Police Department to take a position with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Since then city manager Charles T. McDonald has been serving as acting chief. What steps has the city taken to fill this vacancy?

The first act of the city council was to make a reevaluation of the position and responsibilities of chief of police. The council was fortunate in that the Personnel Board has just finished a study of personnel practices and job classifications in the city government. Nevertheless, some delay was inevitable as a new job description was hammered out.

The job description recommended by the Personnel Board called for a high school graduate with at least five year's prior experience in police work and successful completion of a course in a nationally recognized police academy or in-service training program. The city council wished to be more specific and added physical requirements of a minimum height of 5'8" and a maximum weight of 190 pounds. It also set age limits of 35 to 50. Also modified and strengthened were the disciplinary powers of the police chief.

While this new job description was being written, the councilmen consulted with George Panagoulis, Prince Georges Chief of Police, and Inspector Roland Sweitzer of his staff regarding the situation in Greenbelt. Among the questions discussed were whether a new police chief should come from the ranks or be recruited from outside and whether a system of graduated ranking of police officers should be instituted.

Finally, on August 14, the job description was approved and the city manager was authorized to recruit a new police chief. To date, McDonald has received 22 applications, which he is now reviewing with Inspector Sweitzer. A decision is expected shortly.

Giorno-Slaugh

Mrs. Isabel M. Giorno, 54-D Ridge, announces the marriage of her daughter, Laura Dolores, to Frederick A. Slaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Slaugh, 9-D Ridge.

The wedding took place on Saturday, September 29, at 4 p.m. at the Church of the Reformation, Washington, D.C. The Rev. J. Bruce Weaver officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Thomas Mann of Alexandria, Va. William S. Sandilands of Greenbelt was best man, and the ushers were Thomas Mann and Charles E. Slaugh Jr.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Parish Hall of the church. After a trip to the Poconos, the couple will reside in Takoma Park, Md. Both the bride and groom are graduates of High Point High School; class of 1958. Mr. Slaugh was a 1962 graduate of the Cornell University School of Hotel Administration, and is associated with Harris, Kerr, and Forster in Washington, D.C.

Our Neighbors

Elaine Skolnik - Granite 4-6060

"There is nothing like a band!" And if you don't believe it, just ask those neighbors of yours who sat out under the warming rays of the sun last Sunday listening to the very fine music of the 75th Army Band from Ft. Belvoir, Virginia. In case the World Series game kept you from remembering, the Greenbelt National Guard was the scene of the kick off ceremonies of Greenbelt's month-long 25th anniversary observance. Almost 350 enthusiastic persons examined with great interest the fantastic exhibits of the Goddard Space Flight Center. Helpful Goddard specialists including Charles Boyle, Public Relations Officer, answered the questions of the curious. A simply marvelous lecture by Guy Johnson centering around the portable Spacemobile kept even the tiniest listeners captivated. Now don't forget to take the whole family to the Goddard Space Flight Center's Open House on Sunday, October 14.

Getting back to the concert for a moment, I must mention that the lilting strains of the music kind of infected everyone present. In fact, Master of Ceremonies S/FC Austin Green hoofed it for a few uninhibited seconds. Little did he realize that his performance would cause the immediate formation of a fan club. First grader Edith Beauchamp excitedly exclaimed to her friend Alice White, "Did you see Sgt. Green doing the twist? It was funny! I hope the band plays that song again so he'll do it again."

The presence of Greenbelt's lovely queen, Miss Jane Brooks, certainly enhanced the introductory portion of the ceremonies. She was presented by a proud and beaming Eli Don Bullian. Please - no offense to Mayor Francis White, Councilmen Tom Channing, Bill Phillips and Ben Goldfaden, Commissioner Frank Lastner, program chairman Alan Kistler, and 25th anniversary chairman, Harry Zubkoff who all took their bows handsomely.

CALLING ALL PARENTS! When the new Teen Club chaperone schedule comes through your mail slot, don't forget to mark the date assigned you on the calendar. Your interest and participation not only means a fuller and more enriching teen club program, but will also provide a pleasant evening out. Just ask Mrs. Linstrum, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Shoemaker and Mr. Gallant who served last weekend.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. James T. McCarl, 26 Woodland Way, who lost her paternal grandfather. It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mowery, 12-L Plateau. Kenneth Allen was born September 23 weighing 6 lbs. 15 oz.

After a stint in the Armed Service (Korea), Hugh O'Donnell is back home, 62-F Ridge.

Mrs. Daniel B. Branch, 13-H Ridge, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Campbell, 13-J Ridge, motored to Jacksonville, Florida, to meet Mrs. Branch's son, Daniel. Lt. J.G., USN, who was returning from a seven months' cruise aboard the USS Bigelow in the Mediterranean. Mrs. Branch and Mrs. Campbell enjoyed watching the fleet of five American Destroyers, the Bigelow as Flag Ship, steam into port. A colorful parade and greetings by the Mayor of Jacksonville and high-ranking Naval officials made the homecoming a delightful and memorial occasion for everyone.

Daniel, with his father and several friends, is now enjoying a fishing trip vacation. He expects to leave Greenbelt for Jacksonville on October 16 and would welcome a rider, preferably someone to help drive. If interested, please call 474-4118.

Stephen Decoste, USN, 20-L Hillside, had an exciting day October 3. His ship, the USS DuPont, was part of Task Force 140 assigned to recover Astronaut Wally Schirra in the Atlantic, had his flight been terminated following the third orbit.

The Red Cross and the County Civil Defense met recently at the Greenbelt Armory to sign an agreement of cooperation in local disaster operations. Hal Silvers, County Civil Defense Director, and George Weber, Disaster Chairman of the Red Cross for Prince Georges County, signed for their respective agencies.

We were relieved to learn that Mrs. James Wooldridge, wife of the popular recreation director, did not suffer any serious injury in the recent accident that took her and her husband out of town for several days.

Young David Volk, 5-G Ridge, has been selected as an alternate to represent High Point High School on the television program "It's Academic." David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Volk.

Duplicate Bridge Schedule

The Greenbelt Bridge Club meets the second and fourth Friday of each month. Next duplicate bridge game is scheduled for tomorrow, October 12, starting at 8:30 p.m. at the Co-op Hospitality Room. Please bring tables.

Woman's Club Celebrates Anniversary With Tea

The Silver Anniversary Tea, given by the Womans Club of Greenbelt in honor of Greenbelt's twenty-fifth Anniversary, was held in the spacious Social Room of the Greenbelt Youth Center on Sunday, September 30. The long refreshment table was covered with white linen damask and decorated with a centerpiece of pink gladiolus and green ferns, the Womans Club colors, arranged in a large silver bowl. Silver candelabra, supporting long silver candles, enhanced the Tea Services at each end of the table.

The Hostess Committee, headed by Co-Chairmen Mrs. Edward J. Castaldi and Mrs. Caecilie Mayer, was in charge of all planning, arrangements and floral decorations throughout the hall.

Among the distinguished guests and out of town visitors attending were Mrs. Arthur Vollberg, Past President of the Sixth District of the Maryland Federation of Womans Clubs; Mrs. Frank Vrana, the present President; and Charles T. McDonald, City Manager of Greenbelt.

In further cooperation with the City's celebration, the Womans Club decorated one of the display windows of the local Variety Store. Mrs. Henley Goode was chairman of this project. A color scheme of pink and green, the colors of the flowering Crabapple tree symbol of the Womans Club, was used to enhance the exhibit of Club momentos, trophies and civic achievements acquired during the greater part of the City's and the Womans Club co-existence.

On October 4 the first Board Meeting of the new Club Year was held at the home of Mrs. Cyril Turner, 47 Lakeside Dr. Mrs. Charles T. McDonald, the new President, officiated. The Officers and Department Chairmen reported on their Club Projects during the summer months and submitted their plans and proposed budgets for the coming year.

The Program Chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Moore, announced plans for the first Membership Meeting, to be held on Thursday, October 11, in the Social Hall of the Community Church. The speaker will be Rev. William P. Anna pastor of the St. John Episcopal Church in Beltsville. His topic will be his experiences as Protestant Chaplain aboard the Hospital Ship, USS Hope, while journeying through the Far East supplying needed medicines and equipment and instructing native doctors, nurses and medical technicians in modern medical practices.

Center PTA Hunting Talented Parents

The Center School PTA is taking a survey this year to discover any "hidden" talents among its members. Ferdinand Cardano, the new principal, is looking for parents with special knowledge and abilities who can assist the teachers with technical information about special studies and who can give first-hand information and demonstrations of various skilled occupations. Cardano feels that there are many parents who could make a real contribution and is hoping for an enthusiastic response to the questionnaire which was sent out this week.

Perlzweig-Neimark

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Perlzweig, former Greenbelters now residing in Silver Spring, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dana Ellen, to Sheridan Neimark, son of Mrs. Anne Neimark and the late David Neimark of Youngstown, Ohio.

Dana is a graduate of Maryland University, where she received her B.A. in English and History. She also attended the International Summer Program at Oxford University for further studies in English, Drama, and History. She is a science writer for the National Institute of Health.

Mr. Sheridan Neimark is a graduate of Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh where he received his degree in Chemical Engineering. He also holds a Law Degree from George Washington University, and is a Patent Attorney.

The couple will be married on January 5 at the Sheraton Park Hotel.

JCC Membership Meeting

There will be a membership meeting of the Jewish Community Center of Prince Georges County on Saturday, October 13, at 8:30 p.m. A special film, "Israel", written by Leon Uris with narration by Edward G. Robinson and music by Leonard Bernstein, will be shown.

Gourmet Guides Available

Gourmet guide restaurant books sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Washington and sold jointly by the Women's Group of the Jewish Community Center and the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Greenbelt are now on sale. The books, costing $7.50, contain 13 coupons, to be used over the course of a year at the following restaurants: The Place Where Louis Dwells, Ascot, Collingwood on the Potomac, Neptune Room, Napoleon's, Marroco's, Dolphin, Corsican, Protocol Room, Denleigh House, Blue Martin, Gusti's (2 coupons). Each coupon is good for one free meal, with a paid meal of equal value.

The gourmet guides can be obtained from any Junior Chamber of Commerce member or by calling Ellerlin, Gr. 4-7437 or Greenbaum, Gr. 4-4292.

Police News Review

Police are holding a number of items which have been found and turned in. A lost and found record index is kept on all such items. There are many keys, some eyeglasses, a transistor radio, and child's white sweater, items just found recently. Persons finding or losing personal possessions should notify the Police office so that a proper record can be maintained for reference.

A possible case of vandalism was reported to the entrance of St. Hugh's Rectory. On Sunday morning it was reported that two flower pots had been knocked over and broken and the flowers dumped out. A small dogwood and fruit tree had been broken, and a small flower bed fence was knocked down and broken. This was evidently done sometime Saturday night.

A woman living alone in an apartment in the North End of town reported to Police that she had left her residence for a short while last week and when she returned she noticed her purse open. Inspection of her wallet disclosed that $15.00 was missing.

Two shoplifting incidents involving juveniles were reported last week. Three youths were involved in each case. The six names were put on J-2 records for possible future reference. Restitution was made in each case and the youths were released to their parents' custody.

A case of indecent exposure was brought to the attention of Greenbelt police last Saturday when six young teen-age girls told of the incident which occurred in the vicinity of Braden Field. The person accused was a Greenbelt male adult in his twenties. Charges have been placed.

A warning was issued to a dog owner last week after complaints were received that his dog was trespassing on another resident's property.

A black and white rabbit was found last Tuesday night and turned over to police. In the process of taking the animal to the warehouse where the animal shelter was located, the police officer was bitten or scratched. The animal will be held for observation at the warehouse for two weeks.

Firehouse To Display Films

Culminating a busy week of activities in observing National Fire Prevention Week, there will be a special showing of films dealing with Fire Prevention at the Greenbelt Firehouse on Saturday, October 13, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited and urged to attend the showing of these interesting and informative films.

League of Women Voters

The northern county unit of the Prince Georges County League of Women Voters will meet at 10 a.m., Thursday, October 18, at the College Park Municipal Center.

This past week thirty teens took to the open range. They were led by Hopalong Stevenson. (Ricky still hasn't sat down.)

The Teen Club newspaper should have their first issue out in November—that is, if they can learn how to operate our new duplicating machine.

We would like to extend thanks in advance to all those parents who will be assuming chaperoning duties during the 1962-63 season.

Local Team New Champs

"Berwyn Barbers" of the Greenbelt slow-pitch Softball league won the Washington Metropolitan City Championship down at Guy Mason Recreation center Monday night when they played Eastern Air Lines and defeated them 11-10 in seven innings.

The "Barbers," managed by Nellie Goodall, gained entry into the tournament by winning the local city championship. They had to overcome a 10-5 deficit at the end of six innings to shave the strong Airlines ballclub. Some of the local ballplayers participating were Neil Vaughn, Bill Moore, Jerry Jenkins, Gene Sparks, Doug Sullivan, Al Dean, John Lewis, Bob Murray, Bill Fox, and coach Gene Kelleher.

New Bowling Alley To Open

Greenbelt bowlers will have available a spanking new, ultra-modern, plush bowling alley when Nick Rinaldi Bowling Lanes on Kenilworth Avenue and Riverdale Road opens on October 15. The building will house 18 tenpin alleys and 14 duckpin lanes. The lanes feature an "underball" return. The new bowling alley cost $700,000 to build, and Arthur Weber was the architect. Revere Furniture decorated the interior and E. A. Baker was builder. It will also contain a laundromat, playroom, and meeting room for the use of patrons.

Wayne Brannock, of North Carolina, will manage the enterprise. Brannock immediately announced that leagues are being formed now, one of them a housewives' league which will feature $400 in prizes in the "480" league.

Boys Club Drive

The officers of the Greenbelt Boys Club announce the opening of their 1962-63 Father-and-Son Fund-raising Drive on Monday, October 15, at 7 p.m.

This is the one and only drive the Club conducts over the year, and all funds are used in the growth and development of the Boys Club. The group has grown in the past year - with two basketball teams (increasing to three this year); one baseball team (and we hope to field three this year); and at this writing three football teams.

When the boys and their fathers come to your door the week of the 15th, open your HEARTS and PURSES for an ACTIVE BOYS CLUB!

The officers of the Greenbelt Boys Club would like to thank Dick Walton, Republican Candidate for State Senator, for the fine donation to the Club. SUPPORT YOUR BOYS CLUB!

Little League Banquet

The annual Little League banquet was held last Saturday night at the American Legion Hall, with 286 in attendance. Frank Lastner was the guest speaker. Jim Lemon of the Minneapolis Twins also addressed the group.

City Manager Charles McDonald received a plaque in recognition of his service to the Little League over the years.

Awards were given to the City Champs, the American League's GHI Giants managed by Bruce Feltner, and to the National League champs, the Indians managed by Don Shogogue. The Sportsmanship award went to the Lion's Club Team, managed by Jim Sines.

For the third successive year the City Trophy was given to Bud Dean, president of Little League and manager of the Pepsi-Cola Athletics. Bill Moore presented the most valuable player trophies to Mike Jones of the American League and Gordon Wayne of the National League. Dinner was served by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

Homemakers' Open House

The Co-op sponsored Homemakers' Open House will hold its first demonstration "Glo-Candle Wax" at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, October 17, in the Co-op Hospitality Room. Mrs. Edie Christenson will direct the workshop. Mrs. Ethel Rosenzweig, chairman of the Homemaker's Program in Greenbelt, invites all women to attend.

On Thursday, October 25, there will be a demonstration by Mrs. Janet Shriber on nutrition - "Facts and Fallacies." Mrs. Shriber is a Prince Georges County 4-H home economist.

Openings in Bowling League

There are still openings for bowlers in the Greenbelt Women's League. The league will start its new season Wednesday Night at 8:15 p.m. at Rinaldi's Riverdale Bowl. Sponsors are welcome. For information, Call GR 4-8127.

Poor Pearl's Story

If you're beyond the fairy-tale age, you know that the prince and princess and ordinary people too - don't always live happily ever after.

Pearl found that out long ago. Her prince used to celebrate payday by slapping her around.

After 20 years of this, Pearl lost her temper. One Saturday night, as Prince Charming advanced menacingly, she crowned him with the frying pan. Apparently she hurt his feelings. He stumbled out of their flat and never returned.

Three years later, after no word from or about him, Pearl received a telegram from the police department of a Southern city. It told her that her husband was dead.

Pearl was 63, had heard about widow's benefits, and wondered if she might qualify. She discussed this possibility with her neighbor. "You can't get anything from Social Security," the neighbor scoffed. "They won't pay you unless you and Mike were living together at the time he died, or unless he was supporting you. Supporting her? If it weren't for her job as a cook at the State Hospital (not covered by Social Security) she would never have gotten along."

So Pearl didn't go to social security - until desperation drove her to us in April of this year. She was ill and could work no longer.

Pearl is now receiving a benefit - a widow's benefit of $72.00 a month. The neighbor's advice was expensive. It cost Pearl a total of $864, the sum of benefits lost because she applied two years late.

Pearl's story could have ended differently had she consulted her social security office instead of her neighbor. Your nearest social security office is located at 8113 Fenton St., Silver Spring, and like advice, our service is free.

AAUW Seeks Members

The College Park Branch of the American Association of University Women includes a number of Greenbelt women among its members. Other Greenbelt women are invited to get acquainted with county problems, by participating in the program of the group. Mrs. Clifford H. Simonson, 8-C Ridge Road, GR 4-9349, will be glad to provide information about meetings and membership opportunities.

Girl Scout Leaders Needed

The Girl Scout Recruitment program for adult volunteers is under way. Jobs to be filled are: committee members, leaders, co-leaders, specialty consultants (music, art, out-of-doors experts, etc.), program chairmen (cookies, registrar of camping), special programs (hospital and service projects). Interested parties are urged to call Mrs. Anna Blaine, GR. 4-7746, who is the Girl Scout neighborhood organizer.

Greenbelt has only one established troop functioning this season, the Senior group led by Liz Pehls. Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 46, in existence for two years, and also a Brownie Troop, will start their activities as soon as leaders are assigned.

Boys Club Football

by Bud Dean

The Boys Club football season is well under way and the boys are shaping up fine.

The 85-pounders led by Joe Skillman at quarterback, have played two games and have acquitted themselves well. In the first game they pushed Landover all over the field but couldn't dent the gold stripe, as they lost 6 to 0. In their second game they again ran all over the field, but again couldn't dent the gold stripe, tying Belair 0 to 0.

The 105-pounders are having a ball, led by Hudson at quarterback, tearing holes in the line. The 105's are undefeated at this time, winning both games - the first 13 to 6 and the second 7 to 0.

The 125's with all the potentials of a power house, are having trouble getting untracked. They have pushed the two teams they have played all over the field but just can't find the winning combination. In the first game they held Bradley Heights on the ground, but the Bradley boys passed them to death. Score 26 to 14. The second game - the remark 'always the best man but never the groom,' was so right, as the boys were on the 10-yard line 3 times, only to lose the ball on intercepted pass. One of these Saturdays these boys will unload all that talent on someone - and I believe it will be this Saturday.

COME ON DOWN AND CHEER THE BOYS on Saturday - with the 105-pounders playing Green Meadows at 11 o'clock and the 125-pounders playing District Heights at 12:30 - both games at Braden Field.

REMEMBER the Boys Club Drive this week.
